

TECHNICAL DATA SHEET

Revision: 3

Edition: June/2024

STANLUX GOLD 10000

- Fine bronze powder pigment that offers the best opacity, gloss and printability for flexographic and gravure systems.
- Available shades:
 - Pale Gold
 - Rich Pale Gold
 - Rich Gold
- This product can be supplied in paste form, after technical agreement to define the solid content and kind of solvent

SPECIFIED CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|--|------------|
| • Maximum retention in # 325 Mesh | 0.5% Max. |
| • Average Particles Size (D50 – Malvern) | 14 microns |

INFORMATIVE CHARACTERISTIC

- | | |
|------------------|----------------------------------|
| • Water coverage | 6,300 - 7,500 cm ² /g |
|------------------|----------------------------------|

Typical Uses

- Printing ink for flexography and gravure, specially when the formulation is based on acrylic resin and/or ethyl alcohol is used as solvent.

Before using the product, we recommend that you consult the safety information, including the adequate handling and transport, which are available in the product's Material Safety Data Sheet – MSDS. The information mentioned in this technical bulletin represents our current level of knowledge and experience, but shall not be considered as a guarantee. It is the user's responsibility to assure the adequate use of the product, since Aldoro will not accept liability on any type of loss or damage which may arise due to the use of this information or application of the product. Aldoro reserves itself the right of changing, without prior notice, any data contained in this bulletin, resulting from adjustment, development or evolution of the production process.
