

TECHNICAL DATA SHEET

Revision: 5

Edition: June/2024

STANLUX PASTE 2000

- Aluminium paste with lamellar particles, recommended for paint formulations that require a whiter and brighter metallic pigment
- Non leafing grade with medium particle size
- Solvent: mixture of White Spirit and High Aromatic

SPECIFIED CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------|
| • Solid content | 63% to 67% |
| • Maximum retention in # 325 Mesh | 0.50% |
| • Maximum water content | 0,15% |

INFORMATIVE CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|---|------------|
| • Average Particles Size- (D50 - Malvern) | 21 microns |
|---|------------|

Typical Uses

- General industrial paints
- Decorative and/or architectural paints
- This product is specially recommended for application in formulations that require aluminium pigment with high metallic effect.

Before using the product, we recommend that you consult the safety information, including the adequate handling and transport, which are available in the product's Material Safety Data Sheet – MSDS. The information mentioned in this technical bulletin represents our current level of knowledge and experience, but shall not be considered as a guarantee. It is the user's responsibility to assure the adequate use of the product, since Aldoro will not accept liability on any type of loss or damage which may arise due to the use of this information or application of the product. Aldoro reserves itself the right of changing, without prior notice, any data contained in this bulletin, resulting from adjustment, development or evolution of the production process.
